

THE INNOCENTS SOCIETY

The Chancellor's Senior Honorary
University of Nebraska-Lincoln

Dear Junior:

The Innocents Society is the Chancellor's senior honorary at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Founded on April 24, 1903, and uniquely Nebraskan, the Society has been leading the campus in all aspects and promoting school spirit for more than 100 years. In the spring, thirteen new members are chosen from the junior class to carry on the Innocents Society's traditions and goals. Membership is based upon superior academic achievement, unparalleled leadership, and selfless service to the University and community.

The Innocents Society takes pride in being an active organization. This past year, the Society has co-hosted many events with Chancellor Ronnie Green, completed monthly service projects in the Lincoln community, participated in Homecoming Week activities, hosted a Blood Drive Challenge, and organized a volunteer trip across the state of Nebraska.

Former Innocents Society members include: former U.S. Representative Howard Buffett, former President and Chair of the Cooper Foundation E.N. "Jack" Thompson, former Nebraska Governor and U.S. Senator Bob Kerrey, former University of Nebraska President James "J.B." Milliken, former Nebraska Attorney General Jon Bruning, former NFL player Kyle Vanden Bosch, Hudl co-founder John Wirtz, and current Nebraska State Senator Adam Morfeld. Honorary Innocents Society members include: former U.S. Senator and Secretary of Defense Chuck Hagel, former Nebraska football coach, athletic director, and U.S. Representative Tom Osborne, former Nebraska football coach and athletic director Bob Devaney, University of Nebraska-Lincoln Chancellor Ronnie Green, former University of Nebraska-Lincoln Chancellor Harvey Perlman, and University of Nebraska President Emeritus Martin Massengale.

If you have any questions about the application or the organization, please contact Meyri Ibrahim, Micaylon Moore, any member of the Society, or visit our website at <http://innocents.unl.edu>.
